The Republican primaries for Keating township will be held at the usual hour and places, Saturday, July 25, 1896

DEMOCRATS in the campaign of 1892 promised dollar wheat but the promise was not fulfilled until McKinley was elected in 1896

It is hoped to attend the Republican meeting at the Wright House tomorrow night and hear your professor for United States Senator

The name of Lawrence Herring candidate for supervisor of Keating township will be found in the proper places Lawrence is very popular and there are many who are glad to see that he has announced himself He has a good character and is a straight Republican and will give his constituents a square vote

Democrats and Populists are making considerable bluster about coming over and playing in their Santa Claus yard and dishing down cellar door but the chances are they will think twice on the better part of valor and remain in their own back of the herring pond

Hon P A Morrison was over from Smethport on business Saturday afternoon The Judge is a candidate on the office of District Judge, and with his wide experience and thorough knowledge of the law he will doubtless prove a very formidable candidate for the great Potter Enterprise

It is with pleasure that the MINER publishes the above announcement of so able and true and coming from the people shows that Judge Morrison's uniform course of striving to show justice to all parties has gained public confidence in the Judge has used many important cases in the county and so impartially combined with a thorough knowledge of the law has satisfied the people over there that it would be unwisely proper to re-elect him to said position

—L. A. Rogers, a brother of Col. L. Rogers, died at his home in Warren last Tuesday, aged 72 years. He was born at Almond, N. Y., Feb. 9, 1824. During the gold excitement of the 50's he went to California where he spent six years. He finally came back east and located at Warren, where he has since resided. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon.

Supt. McClure of the C. & P. A. R'y is deserving of the commendation of the entire traveling public that patronizes that road. During the last 2 months he has made such improvements in the road bed that it will compare favorably with the best trunk lines of the country and the service rendered is such as furnished by the

Died

At his home near Port Allegany, on Dec. 4, 1896, Lawrence Lynch in the ninety sixth year of his life.

The deceased was born in County Longford, Ireland from which place he removed to this country more than half a century ago. He leaves to mourn his loss four daughters—Mrs. M. Wallace of Open Brook, Mrs. Thos. Doulin of Hazelett, Mrs. Andrew Campbell of Smethport, Mrs. P. L. Hooley of Mt. Alton, Pa., and two sons, Peter and Henry who together with the deceased reside at the old home. Besides these are a large number of grandchildren and great grandchildren nearly all of whom were present at the funeral.

During the whole of Mr. Lynch's long and useful life he was a blessing of good health to all of the few weeks previous to his death he was in good spirits and enjoyed his life immensely. He was a consistent member of the Catholic church at Port Allegany from its organization and was one of the last to be summoned to his reward. He was a kind husband and father, a true friend and neighbor, a good citizen and a consistent christian. He was one of the few who came to this country in his infancy, but never forgot that he was a child of Erin. He was proud of his nationality and loved the land of his birth. He was a staunch democrat in politics, but never allowed politics to interfere with his friendships. He was a man of strong will power and of indomitable energy. He was a man who will be missed by all who knew him. He was a kind father, a true friend and neighbor, a good citizen and a consistent christian. He was one of the few who came to this country in his infancy, but never forgot that he was a child of Erin. He was proud of his nationality and loved the land of his birth. He was a staunch democrat in politics, but never allowed politics to interfere with his friendships. He was a man of strong will power and of indomitable energy. He was a man who will be missed by all who knew him.

Rumors have been current for some days that Napoleon B. Spaff, as well as other notables who have long since passed into history.

Each year sees a few more removed from the ranks of the pioneers of Potter county, and it is with feelings of sadness that we record the death of Mrs. Jane Ann Hyde, which occurred at the home of her son, Mr. Wm. Hyde, in Port Allegany, on Thursday, Dec. 3rd, 1896, at the age of 82 years, 3 months and 3 days. Mrs. Hyde was born in Otsego county, N. Y., and was married to Mr. Wm. Hyde in 1833. They moved to Potter county in 1850, and settled in Port Allegany, where they have since resided. Mr. Hyde died in 1892. Mrs. Hyde was the mother of 11 children, 8 of whom survive her. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church for many years, and was a consistent christian lady. She was highly respected by all who knew her, and her death will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends and relatives. The funeral was held from the residence of her son, Wm. Hyde, on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 5th, and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Hall officiated. Interment was made in the Port Allegany cemetery.

Death of John W. Sanborn Jr.

The sad intelligence was received in this place on Saturday last of the death of John W. Sanborn Jr., which occurred at his home in Bradford on Friday morning, Dec. 4th, 1896, after a lingering illness with typhoid fever, which he had contracted while in the discharge of his duties as a conductor on the Bradford, Bordell & Kinzua railroad. He was born in Smethport 24 years ago and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Sanborn of this place. He was a bright, intelligent young man, and had many friends who will learn of his death with sincere regret. He was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge of this place, and was also a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors. The funeral was held from the residence of his parents in this place on Monday afternoon, Dec. 7th, and was largely attended by friends of the deceased. Rev. Father Hall officiated. The remains were interred in the Smethport cemetery.

The Lutheran church in Smethport will be dedicated next Sunday, Dec. 13th. Rev. Father Hall of Philadelphia will officiate. A large congregation is expected to be present. Rev. Father Hall is a fine speaker and a large congregation will be present to hear him.

Judge Mayburry seems to escape fatal accidents in this community. He was a juror in a case recently tried in the court of common pleas of Cameron county, and while driving to the court house from Emporium was thrown from a sleigh and severely injured. He was taken to the hotel and remained there for several days. He was then taken to his home in Smethport, where he is now confined to his bed. His injuries are very severe, but it is hoped that he will recover.

Mr. Mallette will receive pupils in voice and theory and for piano and organ. The terms will be the same as heretofore in Smethport. The music room will be at Mr. Chester Sartwell's. Please apply at once and have hours arranged to suit. A lecture class will be formed for theoretical study of music.

FOR THE SENATORSHIP.

How the Wanamaker Campaign Reached Its Present Proportions.

IT WAS BEGUN MANY MONTHS AGO

Thomas Dolan, the Leader of It, Tells How and Why It Was Begun—Not Antagonizing Gay One and Appealing Only to the People.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 8.—It seems to be the idea of many that the campaign in the interest of the Hon. John Wanamaker for the succession to Cameron in the United States senate is a thing of recent origin. This is due, doubtless, to the fact that the National League of Business Men very recently addressed to him a request to become a candidate to which request he gave an affirmative response. This was looked upon as his formal announcement to the field and to a certain extent it was a new departure in the campaign, but the fact is that the movement in his interest was begun long ago and that it has progressed so far that to-day he has a personal following far greater than any other candidate.

Mr. Wanamaker was absent from the country when the movement was started, but in fact he was [illegible]

[illegible]

The leader of the movement was Hon. Thomas Dolan, who, after consultation with several others, and the employment of [illegible] to-day, is among the most prominent men in the state. He is a member of the Republican national committee, of which Hon. John Wanamaker was also a member, and Mr. Dolan was chairman of the committee issued. In the recent campaign he labored early in the season for the success of the ticket, but he was not [illegible] and was in constant [illegible] Mr. Dolan, who is wealthy personally and popular among his friends, and also worked with Mr. Quay on the advisory [illegible] of the campaign. [illegible]

Later, for the first time Mr. Dolan consented to explain in a general way what had been done.

An Earnest Campaign.

It is a mistake [illegible] that the movement in the interest of Mr. Wanamaker began only a few months ago. Nearly a year ago we made [illegible] and when I say we I mean [illegible] who recognized in him the right man who should redeem Pennsylvania and add to the prosperity of the country. [illegible] what has been accomplished [illegible] at the same time I speak in a general way. We have had the active support [illegible] of every many influential gentlemen [illegible] business men throughout the state [illegible] have been in close [illegible] with hundreds of them [illegible] powerful in their respective [illegible] This result, generally [illegible] gratifying, and I can say with [illegible] confidence that Mr. Wanamaker [illegible] votes directly pledged to him [illegible] other candidates named [illegible] Republican Business Men [illegible] fact so strong has been the [illegible] that while many [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
